NOAC 2009

National Order of the Arrow Conference

I'm There

Indiana University • Bloomington • August 1st -
August 6th, 2009

Every two years, Arrowmen from around the country have the unique opportunity to gather together for the National Order of the Arrow Conference commonly referred to as NOAC. NOAC's generally have over 7,000 Arrowmen in attendance that are seeking many of the aspects you are looking for: fun, fun and more fun. Each time a conference is held, Arrowmen coming from around the world gather at a major university to share their ideas on lodge leadership, activities, and ceremonies as well as participate in a large variety of competitions. This six day adventure is unlike any other event in Scouting and is unique to just members of the Order of the Arrow.

NOAC is comprised of all aspects of the Order, which include anything from ceremonial evaluations to learning about the latest in computer patch design capabilities. A typical NOAC day consists of the following:

- Breakfast
- Morning training sessions
- Lunch
- Afternoon training sessions, athletic competitions and museums
- Dinner
- Evening show
- Evening activities which include open bowling, patch trading, etc.

The cost for this year's NOAC is estimated to be around 500.00, which will include transportation to Bloomington, Indiana, conference fee plus. The conference fee includes all meals from Saturday dinner to Monday breakfast and accommodations in Indiana University's dorms.
